Synopsis

On July 2, 2015, the victim, Terry Bunn Jr., took the defendant, Megan Rondini, to his residence and once there both engaged in sexual intercourse. After the intercourse had ended, Bunn went to sleep and Rondini left by crawling out through a window due to her being unable to open any of the doors inside Bunn's residence. During the process of leaving, Rondini took several items from inside Bunn's residence including currency, a credit card, and keys. Once outside of the residence, Rondini entered Bunn's vehicle and while inside took a pistol from the center console. Rondini finally left the residence after she was able to make contact with both a taxi service and a friend who both came to the home to retrieve her. At the time Rondini left the residence, she left with the friend who took her to DCH where she filed a report against Bunn claiming that she had been raped.

Case Report

On July 2, 2015, the defendant, Megan Rondini, filed a report with the Tuscaloosa Police Department claiming that she had been raped by the victim, Terry Bunn Jr. In her initial report, Rondini stated that she had gone home with Bunn after seeing him the previous night at Innisfree Irish Pub and that once at his residence that the two had engaged in sexual intercourse which she felt was forced. Rondini further stated that after the intercourse had ended that she attempted to leave Bunn's residence but was unable to do so due to the door which led from his bedroom being locked. As an alternative to using the door, Rondini stated that she climbed out of Bunn's bedroom window, onto the roof of the home, and finally onto the ground by using a fence. Once outside, Rondini stated that she called both a friend and a taxi service to come pick her up before realizing that she had forgotten her keys inside the residence and using a nearby cooler and trash can to reenter the home through the window which she had used to exit. Once inside the home for a second time, Rondini stated that she was unable to locate her keys and again exited through the window and went to the road to wait on a ride. While at the road, Rondini stated that both her friend and the taxi arrived at the same time and after paying the taxi driver for his time left with her friend who took her to DCH to report the incident.

In Rondini's initial written statement, which she gave to Tuscaloosa Police Officer R.B. Phillips, there is no mention of her going through Bunn's bedroom or vehicle in an attempt to locate her keys and no mention of her taking anything from the residence which did not belong to her. It is however mentioned in Phillips' report narrative that Rondini had used a key ring which she found in Bunn's bedroom to try and exit the room and that the keys had been located by Navid Khan, who was the taxi driver who had come to Bunn's residence to pick her up, in his vehicle. Along with the key ring which Khan had located a single Ford vehicle key was taken from Rondini by Phillips at the time of report.

Due to the nature of what Rondini was alleging, Investigators Adam Jones and Josh Hastings with the Tuscaloosa Metro Homicide unit were called out to take over the investigation. Once called out, both Jones and Hastings responded to DCH and met with Rondini where an audio recorded statement was obtained from her. After obtaining Rondini's statement, Jones and Hastings went to Bunn's residence, met with him and obtained a signed consent to search from so that his property could be processed as a possible crime scene. While at the residence, Bunn was asked if he had come home with a female the previous night and denied that he had. Also while at the residence taking photographs, Jones heard a window shut from inside the home and confronted Bunn about it at which time he stated that he wanted to speak with his attorney, Jason Neff, before going any further and at that time Jones and Hastings left the residence.

After initially leaving, Jones and Hastings returned a short time later and had Bunn and his friend, Jason Barksdale, who was also inside the residence exit so that the home could be secured until a search warrant was obtained. While at the residence, Bunn spoke to Neff over the phone and again gave Jones and Hastings written consent to search the property. While in the process of searching the home a second time, a spent .380 shell casing was located inside Bunn's Mercedes along with an empty holster in the center console. Neither Jones nor Hastings were able to locate Rondini's keys inside the residence however they did locate several loose pieces of paperwork which belonged to Bunn scattered in the roadway a short distance from his home. When confronted about the gun and the paperwork, Bunn stated that he believed that Rondini had stolen a credit card, two hundred dollars in cash, and a key to a Ford vehicle from inside his residence as well as a Ruger .380 from his vehicle.

On July 2, 2015, the witnesses Navid Khan and Clara Younger came to the sheriff's office so that video recorded interviews could be conducted. Khan arrived first and prior to beginning his interview, turned the key ring which Rondini had left in his vehicle over to Sgt. Davis for safekeeping. During his interview, Khan stated that he had been called by Rondini for a ride from Bunn's residence and that he had gone to the address to pick her up. Khan further stated that after he arrived at the residence that Rondini got into his vehicle before seeing her friend pull up in a second vehicle at which time she paid him and left with her friend. Khan finally stated that after Rondini had left with her friend that he located the keyring in the back of his vehicle and held them for her. Later in the day after Khan's interview had ended, Clara Younger, who went to Bunn's residence to pick Rondini up also came to the sheriff's office so that a video recorded interview could be conducted. During her interview Younger stated that she received numerous text messages from the suspect, Megan Rondini, pleading for help. Upon receiving the text messages Clara and her roommate, Rebecca Lundgren, drove to Bunn's residence using a pin drop which Rondini had sent and once there picked her up and first took her to their apartment before going to DCH.

Later in the day, Rondini met with Jones at the Tuscaloosa County Sheriff's Office so that a video recorded interview could be conducted. Prior to beginning the interview, Rondini gave Jones a written statement detailing how she had used the key ring which she had found in Bunn's bedroom to try and leave the room as well as how she had gone through his vehicle in an attempt to locate her keys there but had taken a gun for her "protection" instead. During the interview, Rondini stated that along with using the keys from Bunn's bedroom that she had also taken them and shoved them in her pants before initially exiting out the window. Rondini further stated again that she had reentered the residence due to not having her keys and to entering Bunn's vehicle at which point she removed a gun from its interior. When asked what she had done with the gun since it had not been located, Rondini stated that she had left it in Bunn's yard near the roadway before getting into the vehicle with her friend. Upon learning this information, Sgt. Jeremy Franks, who is also with the homicide unit, went to Bunn's residence, located and photographed the pistol before seizing it as evidence.

Later the same day, Rondini came back to the sheriff's office and was again questioned by Jones. Prior to beginning the second interview, Rondini was read Miranda Warning and signed a waiver stating that she understood and wished to speak with Jones. During the second interview, Rondini again stated that she had removed a gun from Bunn's vehicle but this time included information that the gun had accidentally discharged but that she had not seen where the bullet had gone or the shell eject into the driver's seat. Along with the additional information about the gun discharging, Rondini also admitted that during her second time inside Bunn's residence that she had gone through his pants pockets in an attempt to find money to pay for the cab but that he only had three dollars and that she took it and payed the driver with it. Rondini further stated that along with the money that she took from Bunn's pants pockets that she also took football tickets but that she did not take a credit card.

At this time, the key ring and Ford vehicle key have been returned to Bunn however his Ruger .380 pistol is being stored at the sheriff's office for safekeeping. The currency and credit card which Bunn also reported as being stolen have not been located.

203 Mr Bunn states he saw Megan Rondini walking on University Blvd near Hamner Real Estate. He recognized her and offered her a ride. She ended up spending the night at his house. They were up until at least 1230 am. He woke up about 630 and she was gone. He found a truck key, cash and a credit card was missing from his pants pocket. There was no one else in his room. Mr Bunn also found his pistol was missing from the center console of his car.

DCH Regional Hospital
Officer R.B. Phillips

I was at Innisfree, I knew who "Sweet Tea" was from Thanksgiving '14. He did not acknowledge me at the bar but I knew who he was. I remembered driving in his car, him driving, with another person named Jason. We arrived at "Sweet Tea's" house in his hunting room where he told me to wait for him in his bedroom. I went to his bedroom and waited for him on the couch near his closet door where he came in and wanted to have sex. I told him I needed to leave and see my friends but he insisted and he had vaginal intercourse w/ me until he finished and went to sleep. Afterwards I tried to leave but all the doors were bolted shut and he refused to show me out. then I climbed through his window onto the roof and down to the ground where I called my friends. I returned once to try and get my keys but I could not find them and went back down to wait for my friend. My friend picked me up at ~2 am and took me to DCH.

Statement #2

07/02/2015 @ 11:25 a.m.

Tuscaloosa County Sheriff's Office

Investigator A. Jones

I did not know Mr. Bunn's name other than the nickname "Sweet Tea" that everyone called him. He was always at the bar and I knew who he was from when I met him on Thanksgiving 14. We did not speak at Innisfree, to my knowledge, when I was there for trivia July 1st, with a group of my friends. I do not remember leaving the bar but I do remember being in the backseat of Sweet Tea's car, a white mercedez sedan with black interior, with another man named Jason. I told Sweet Tea I needed to leave and go back to my friends but he insisted that he show me his house. When we arrived, Sweet Tea took me in to a room filled with animals that he shot on hunting trips. He told Jason to go to bed and he told me to go wait for him in his room. I waited for him in his room on a chair near the door and a bathroom. When he came to his room he insisted we have sex and I let him have sex with me after much insisting that I needed to leave. When he was finished he rolled over and fell asleep and I quickly got up to gather my clothes so I could leave. When I tried to open any of the doors they were either locked or a closet. I found a key ring with many keys and tried to use them to open the door and none of them worked. I tried to wake up Sweet Tea but he would not help me. I then decided to climb out a window hidden by a heavy drape that was near the door to his room. I climbed out the window and on to the roof and jumped from the roof on to a gate and on to the ground. I then ran to the road and called my friends and a taxi. I then realized I did not have my keys so I pulled a white cooler and a trashcan over to the roof to climb back in to his room. I searched throughly for my keys but could not find them. I jumped back down and went to look in the white mercedez to see if I left my keys. while looking in the car I found a gun and kept it for protection. I went back out to the road to wait for the taxi or my friend. Both arrived at the same time so I paid the taxi for coming out but let my friend drive me home. We drove to her apartment and she convinced me from there to go to DCH.

Summary of Audio/Video statement:

Mr. Khan stated he received a call from the defendant, Megan Rondini, at 1:51 a.m. needing a taxi. Khan stated he called her back telling her he would be there in about fifteen minutes. Khan stated he got to the neighborhood at 2:12 a.m., and located a purse spilled out in the street in front of [REDACTED] which is the home of the victim, Terry Bunn Jr. Khan stated that he called Rondini and she walked about twenty feet from the purse and got into the taxi. Khan stated when she sat down that she looked up the road and saw a car at the stop sign. Rondini then tried to give Khan some cash saying she did not need him to take her anywhere. Khan then told Rondini that she still had to pay for his services, and at that point she took the cash back and gave him a credit card which he processed for the amount owed. After returning the card to Rondini, Khan stated that she got out of the taxi, got into the other car which she had seen earlier, and left.

200 COPY TO: HOM I was dispatched to DCH to meet with Megan Rondini (victim). She stated she had been at Innisfree Irish Pub earlier in the night with a group of friends. She stated she consumed approximately five cups of beer at the bar. She stated an acquaintance of hers, Terry "TJ" Bunn (suspect), whom she knew only as "Sweet T", was also in the bar. She stated the two of them did not contact one another at the bar. She stated around midnight she decided to leave the bar. Although she adamantly denied being intoxicated at the time, she stated she and another unknown white male in his 30's named "Jason" somehow ended up inside Bunn's white Mercedes sedan, driving toward Bunn's residence at [REDACTED]. She stated once they arrived at Bunn's residence, they all walked inside and began admiring Bunn's collection of animal mounts. She stated Bunn then told her to walk upstairs to his bedroom and wait on him there. She stated she did not want to go to his bedroom, but that she felt as though she had no choice because she knew Bunn to be from a very affluent family. She stated Bunn then told "Jason" to find an empty bedroom in the house and go to sleep. She stated once in Bunn's bedroom she sat down on a sofa. She stated Bunn entered the bedroom a few minutes later and sat her cell phone and keys.

	both of which she apparently had in her control at that time, on a table in the bedroom. She stated Bunn then instructed her to get on his bed. Again, she stated she did not want to do this, but she felt as though she had to. It should be noted that she stated she had neither verbally nor physically refused Bunn's advances at this point. She stated Bunn then undressed her and performed oral sex on her. She stated he followed this up by engaging in vaginal intercourse with her. She stated at some point during all this, she verbally informed Bunn that she did not want to have sex with him and that she needed to rejoin her friends at Innisfree. She stated Bunn ignored these statements and continued to engage in intercourse with her. She stated Bunn never physically forced himself on her, although he did place his hands on her hips and hold her down at some point. She stated Bunn continued having intercourse with her until he ejaculated, although she could not be certain where he ejaculated. She stated Bunn then rolled over and went to sleep in the bed where they had been having sex. She stated Bunn had not used a condom during intercourse. She stated once Bunn was asleep, she felt it was safe to leave the residence. She stated she got out of bed, put on one of Bunn's shirts, and attempted to leave the bedroom. She stated she sent texts to multiple friends. She stated these texts contained language such as "please please please come get me", "Help me. Please.", and "Please come get me, I'm crying". She stated she then attempted to open the door she had utilized to enter the bedroom earlier in the night, but that she was unable to unlock it. She stated she could find no other exits from the room. She stated she tried to wake Bunn and ask him how to leave his room; but that he simply rolled over and continued sleeping. She stated she located a set of keys in a dish on a table in Bunn's room, so she tried to unlock the bedroom door with these keys. She stated none of the keys unlocked the door. She stated she opened an exterior window in the bedroom and climbed out onto the roof. She stated she then climbed down onto a fence and eventually onto the ground. She stated she continued calling and texting friends, asking them to pick her up. She stated she also called a taxi to retrieve her. She stated after calling a taxi in Atlanta to pick her up, she eventually located the phone number for an unknown taxi in Tuscaloosa, which drove to her location to pick her up. She stated this phone number was [REDACTED]. It should be noted I was unable to locate a match for this phone number. She stated she was about to leave in the taxi when a friend of hers, to whom she had sent earlier texts requesting help, arrived to retrieve her. She stated this occurred at approximately 0200 hours. She stated she paid the taxi driver for his time and he left the scene. She stated she then realized her keys were still inside Bunn's residence. She stated she located a cooler and a trash can outside his house, so she stacked them on top of each other and re-entered the residence through the window from which she had earlier escaped. She stated she was unable to locate her keys and that, as of this report, they were still inside Bunn's residence along with a grey t-shirt she had been wearing earlier in the night. She stated she again exited the residence and her friend drove her to DCH; where I made contact with her at approximately 0430 hours after one of the emergency department nurses alerted dispatch to the incident. She stated she received a text from the taxi cab driver while she was on the way to DCH. She stated the purpose of this text was to inform her that she had left a large key ring full of keys (the keys she took from the tray in Bunn's bedroom) inside the cab. She stated these keys were still, as of this writing, in the possession of the taxi driver. She did, however, have a single Ford vehicle key, which she stated belonged to Bunn. DCH began a "rape kit" on Rondini. I apprised Sgt. Frost of the incident and he made contact with the Homicide Division. Inv. A. Jones responded to DCH, interviewed Rondini, and took over the investigation. The statement forms, the Ford key, and the completed rape kit were turned over to Inv. Jones at DCH. Inv. Jones stated he would follow up on the investigation.
